To deliberate upon and frame the syllabus for the 5-Year Integrated M.A. Kashmiri Programme in accordance with NEP 2020, a meeting of 5-year integrated Board of Studies was held on 23-04-2026 in the conference hall of the Post Graduate Department of Kashmiri Department. The meeting commenced with the welcome address of the Head of the Department outlining the objectives of the session. The committee undertook a detailed review of the proposed programme structure with an emphasis on academic coherence, skill orientation, and alignment with contemporary pedagogical frameworks.

The committee emphasized the need to design a balanced curriculum incorporating both core and skill-based components. It was proposed that papers on Kashmiri culture, children's literature, translation theory and practice, and skill enhancement be included.

A detailed discussion was held on the foundation of the programme, particularly Semester I, focusing on the history and script of the Kashmiri language.

The committee deliberated upon the teaching of Kashmiri grammar, emphasizing clarity in terminology and practical application. Grammar was to be treated as a functional, skill-based component.

Discussions were held on literary studies, including literary theory and criticism, highlighting their importance in developing analytical abilities.

Kashmiri literature was examined within the framework of world literature to promote comparative understanding.

The development of Kashmiri prose and its genres was reviewed and included in the syllabus.

It was proposed that Semester III include a specialized paper on Kashmiri poetry, particularly the Ghazal.

The committee discussed the integration of technology, including the use of Unicode and composing software for Kashmiri, emphasizing digital literacy.

The distribution of papers across semesters was reviewed and adjusted for better academic progression.

The committee emphasized the holistic development of students combining linguistic, literary, and critical skills.
