

P.G DEPARTMENT OF KASHMIRI
UNIVERSITY OF KASHMIR
HAZRATBAL, SRINAGAR, KASHMIR
190006.

NAAC Accredited Grade A

Master of Arts in Kashmiri

Introduction:

The Kashmiri language and literature programme aims to promote and preserve the rich cultural heritage of Kashmir through language education. Kashmiri, also known as Koshur, is a vital part of Kashmir's identity and history. This programme seeks to empower individuals with language skills, cultural knowledge, and a deeper understanding of Kashmir's unique heritage, folk lore and creative pursuits.

Programme Objectives:

1. Language Proficiency: To develop reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills in Kashmiri language.
2. Cultural Awareness: To understand and appreciate Kashmir's cultural heritage, traditions, folklore, customs and creative wisdom.
3. Literary Appreciation: To study and analyze Kashmiri literature, poetry, fiction, criticism, linguistics, gender sensitivities, folklore, and translation, criticism, inter-textuality and comparative literature.
4. Communication Skills: To effectively communicate in Kashmiri in various social and professional contexts.
5. Preservation and Promotion: To Contribute to the preservation and promotion of Kashmiri language, literature and culture.
6. Community Engagement and Skill Development: To engage with Kashmiri-speaking communities and participate in cultural events and activities and further enhance the skills and competencies of the learners in the field.
7. Language Documentation: To assist in documenting and preserving Kashmiri language resources for future generations.
8. Language Education: Develop teaching materials and methods for effective and effective teaching-learning of the Kashmiri language and literature at University level.